1. Analysis of the company's activity

Rompetrol Well Services S.A. (RWS) is one of the most important companies in the specific Romanian market segment. RWS offers a wide range of specialized services for crude oil and natural gas wells including cementing, stimulations, nitrogen services, tubular running operations and rentals of equipment and tools.

The regional market and demand for well services registered during 2020 a significant drop on the background of effects generated by COVID-19 pandemic, as well as due to a negative trend, registered by the petroleum industry.
The upstream sector was directly impacted by the crude dynamics, quotations volatility for oil products, production reduction measures or suspension of some major exploration and production projects. Additionally, count geopolitical tensions (USA, Russia, Saudi Arabia, Iran) and OPEC decisions for limiting or reducing the crude production, Brent quotation in year 2020 being at a level of 42 USD / barrel, 35% down in comparison with 64 USD/barrel recorded in year 2019.
Within the COVID-19 pandemic context, measures for limiting virus spreading and population mobility were reflected in a dramatic and sudden drop of demand for oil products, decreased refining margins, generating overstocks of raw materials and products.
This market context has determined big upstream sector companies to change their strategies and development plans, reduce investments and take other actions like postponing or cancelling of some exploration projects, reduction of crude oil production, implementing of programs for cutting costs and staff, measures for maintaining economic sustainability.
Company managed to implement in 2020 some measures and programs for optimizing costs, improving current activities and employees' protection. All these significantly contributed towards the registered financial results, including a positive net result.
